Policy on “Prevention of Sexual Harassment of women at workplace”

1.0 Context: Increasingly, across the globe, there is a large focus on the Social Responsibilities of Organisations and their employees. There is a clear emphasis on preserving and enhancing the dignity of the individual. Equally, there has been a consensus that sexual harassment of women in organisations is a basic assault on the dignity of women and strong actions need to be taken to ensure that this is prevented and eradicated in all organisations. In India the Supreme Court in its Vishakha judgment laid down the guidelines to be followed in such cases, which were then incorporated into the “The Sexual Harassment of Women at Workplace (Prevention, Prohibition and Redressal) Act, 2013” (‘the Act’). The Company concurs with the worldview on this aspect and this policy has been crafted with that in mind.

2.0 Scope: The policy follows the universal practice of explaining sexual harassment and is specifically applicable to any instance of harassment of women at the workplace, or in the case of an employee outside the workplace regardless of who was involved in the act.

3.0 Objective: The purpose of this Policy is to ensure the following actions with respect to all employees and stakeholders, especially women:

1. Treat all employees with dignity and respect at all times
2. Not display any unwelcome behaviour that has connotations of sexual harassment
3. Avoid creating a situation of oppression or hostility at the workplace by using sexual harassment as a tool
4. Follow the law and rules (related to sexual harassment) and ensure that others also follow the laws and rules. Take prompt action on instances of alleged harassment at the workplace, by reporting all such instances

4.0 Primacy of the Act: It is specifically provided that the provisions contained in the Act shall prevail wherever there is any conflict with this policy or where there is any doubt or clarification required on any aspect of the policy.

5.0 Definitions:

5.1 “Sexual Harassment” includes any one or more of the following unwelcome acts or behaviour (whether directly or by implication), but is not limited to:
